Summer Reading

This is great summer break reading!

Keep their minds active and involved with very small adventures.

Easy to pickup where they left off. Short chapters that are easy to put down when you call them for dinner.

4th Through 7th Grade

8 to 12 Year-Olds

- Advanced 4th grade readers
- 7th grade readers who are not predictably active readers.
- Younger minds love being read to by the adults in their lives. We encourage quality time together.

“A Rising Tide Raises All Ships.”

We believe in setting high expectations. Apex Collaborative LLC Publishing works with our authors to create charming, fun stories that entertain and challenge the minds of young people. We couple these with companion activity books that contain coloring pages, puzzles, and word games with age-appropriate and enriching vocabulary directly from the text.

Home Schooling

Parents who home school love this book! It is fun to read and paired with an activity book that helps your students think through all kinds of vocabulary games. Teach your students the vocabulary before they read the chapters and they will enjoy knowing the words as they come upon them in the book.

“What a series of adventures! My kids ate them up!”

*-- Kirsten H.
(Homeschooling Mom)*

Book Comparison

The Very Small Adventures of Anne Katrine feels like a cross between the Chronicles of Narnia and Circus Mirandus; magical, yet without an overwhelming amount of magic.

If Harry Potter had a younger, muggle sister, she might be Anne Katrine. And if the North Pole had two expatriate elves, they might be Yul and Nissa.
